REAL MACHO last started in March when he faced $35k claimers at Gulfstream in which he took the lead early, was caught, and then rallied again to claim the victory by a nose. Trainer Chrichton wins 18% of the time with runners returning from layoffs between 46 and 90 days and with 16% shipping to another circuit. MISTER MMMMM tries to rebound off a dull effort vs. optional claimers on the grass at Fair Grounds in which he had the lead before fading to last.

RUIVA possesses a nice win early pedigree and she has been working both steadily and well for her debut. Trainer Ward wins 32% of the time with runners making their debut vs. maiden special weight competition. CAMPAGNE DREAM has been working respectably for her debut and may be ready to roll first time out. Trainer Pletcher wins 17% of the time with runners making their debut vs. maiden special weight competition. JUST EPIC is another who may be ready first out.

PARCHMENT PARTY has visited the winner's circle in each of his last three starts in the U.S. and returned from the layoff last out with a nice effort vs. stakes competition at Oaklawn here he stalked the pace early and finished well late to claim the victory by a half length. Trainer Mott wins 19% of the time in non-graded stakes races. NO BIEN NI MAL last started in September when he faced Grade 3 competition at Parx where he stalked on his way to a 1 3/4 length score.

NEVER REALLY KNOW returns to the grass in her first start back after last competing in early March she she disappointed vs. $30k claimers on the dirt where she finished fifth. The filly broke her maiden on the grass in the start prior. Trainer Casse wins with 14% of his runners moving from the dirt to the turf. TWOLATEBABYDOLL drops in for a tag following a disappointing allowance fifth on the Fair Grounds grass. The filly is capable of much better.
